PRES. COOLIDGE IS OPPOSED TO DILUTED COURT

Says America Must Agree to Surrender
Something.

ASKS EXPRESSION

Executive Touches on Proposed Dis-association League of Nations In Memorial Day Address at Arlington.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 30.—Proposals for American adherence to the World Court contingent upon its dis-association from the League of Nations were spurned by President Coolidge in his Memorial Day address at Arlington as unworthy of American principles and traditions.

"If we receive anything we must surrender something," said the president speaking of the world court and the question of American membership in it. "We may as well face the question candidly and if we are willing to assume these new duties in exchange for the benefits which would accrue to us, let us say so. If we are not willing, let us say so. We can accomplish nothing by taking a doubtful position."

DEATH RAY-NOW HANGS IN BALANCE

Inventor Refuses British Demonstration Offer — U. S. Officials Deny Making Offer.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 30.—The refusal of H. Grindell Matthews, inventor of the "diabolical ray," of an official offer to demonstrate the ray under conditions which would satisfy scientists and business men, made it impossible for the British Air Ministry to pass judgment on the merits of the ray.
William Leach, Under Secretary for the Air Ministry, declared in the House of Commons. Mr. Leach said that Mr. Matthews had refused an opportunity to demonstrate his invention under the stated conditions, and as a result the Air Ministry was not able to accept the inventor's statements in regard to the ray without a scrutiny of it, which he apparently was not prepared to face.

Reports of American interest in the British "death rays" are current here. The National Academy of Science in Washington is stated to have cabled over, asking details, while another rumor is that the United States Navy Department has communicated with H. Grindell Matthews, inventor of the "diabolical ray." A Paris dispatch says that the Navy Department offered to purchase the secret, but that Matthews refused.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Navy officials denied flatly that the department had been negotiating with a view to purchase of the "death ray" secret from the inventor, who is demonstrating it in England. The department has no information in regard to the experiment in London, it was said, and if American naval officers in England have interested themselves unofficially in the matter they have not reported.

SAFE BLOWERS ROB CYNTHIANA FIRM

Get $1200 In Checks and $50 In Gold From Lumber Company Last Night.

By Associated Press.
CYNTHIANA, May 30.—Safe blowers secured 1,200 in checks and notes and fifty dollars in cash from George Hoskins Lumber Co. here last night.
The robbery was not known until the office opened today.

Night Riders Destroy Clark Co. Tobacco

WINCHESTER, May 30.—Reports from the eastern section of Clark County yesterday tell of a band of men in a heavily curtained automobile who rode through that section of the county and destroyed more than 25 tobacco beds.

Every damaged bed was said to have been the property of a nonpool member. Bloodhounds, called to the scene, failed to pick up a trail of the marauders.

Cooper Leads 22 Speeders End First Half Indianapolis Race

By Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 30.— Twenty-two speeders dashed away on the annual five hundred mile race at Indianapolis motor speedway here today. As they got away to a flying start they were given thunderous cheers from the packed stands.
Jimmy Murphy led at the first hundred miles at an average of 98.33 miles per hour. Earl Cooper was second and Benny Hill third.

Shortly afterwards, however, Cooper, driving better than a hundred miles an hour, swept into the lead and was in first position when the first half of the race was run. He was pressed closely by Bennett Hill and Murphy. The speedway management announced that 140,000 persons were on the ground, 25,000 more than last year's record shows.

Henry Ford, himself a racer of no mean distinction in former days, is referee at the race today. He inspected the 500 mile track yesterday, walking around the two and a half mile oval.

Mr. Ford probably was better known as a race driver back in 1902 than as a manufacturer, for about that time his famous "999" car set tongues wagging over the then terrific speed of a mile in just a fraction under a minute's time. He piloted the machine to a one-mile straightaway record along the shores of Lake St. Clair, near Detroit, that stood for years.

SAMPSON STILL BENCH POSSIBILITY

Moorman Says He Is Not Applicant For Seat — Moss Being Considered.

Charles H. Moorman of the Federal bench at Louisville is not regarded at the Department of Justice as a candidate for appointment to the existing vacancy on the sixth United States Circuit Court of Appeals bench at Cincinnati, although his name has been suggested in connection with that appointment and may be considered along with others who are held to be qualified and who have been in-densed.

This was the official reply made at the office of the Attorney General yesterday when inquiry was made concerning the prospects that Judge Moorman might be promoted to the higher court. Notwithstanding the fact that Judge Moorman called on Attorney General Harlan Fiske Stone after also calling on President Coolidge at the White House, the inquiry concerning the possibility of his selection for the Circuit Court of Appeals vacancy was received with some indication of surprise at the department.

At the same time denial was made at the Department of Justice that the name of Judge F. M. Sampson of Barbourville, now Chief Justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, had been dropped from consideration in connection with the pending appointment. It was indicated that there had not been any important developments in regard to the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals vacancy for several weeks as the matter might be resumed any time.

Despite the announcement at the Department of Justice that there have not been any important developments concerning this appointment, Judge Moorman's visit to the White House and the Attorney General's office is taken as an indication that he is under serious consideration for the place. From another quarter it is reported that Judge Alex P. Humphrey of Louisville, while a visitor in Washington a few weeks ago, called at the White House and urged the selection of Judge Moorman, but this report has not been confirmed.

Advocates of the appointment of Judge Sampson, who has received influential support from many different sources, including that of the Democratic Governor, still appear confident that the Barbourville man will be named. That, in any event, he is still a factor in the situation, was the distinct impression given at the Department of Justice.

Another name that also remains under serious consideration is that of Judge McKenzie Moss of Bowling Green, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Compensation Suit Dismissed
The compensation suit brought by Yeary Moore, colored, today was dismissed. Moore claimed he was hurt while doing concrete work for the Humbert Construction company here some time ago. The court ruled that there was not sufficient evidence to make the employer liable for damage under the law.

M. H. S. CLOSES SCHOOL TERM THIS MORNING

Senior Commencement
Last Night Is Well Attended.

25 GRADUATES

Excellent Program by Members of Class—Alumni Banquet Is at Cumberland Tonight at Eight O'clock.

Commencement exercises of the Middlesboro High School graduates were well attended last night and every feature of the program was enjoyable.

Excellent music was rendered by the mixed quartette and the sextet-ette. All the numbers were good though the orations of Jack Chesney and Charles Neighbors deserve special mention.

Mrs. M. M. Moss, principal, presented the graduating class to Supt.
J. W. Bradner who, in turn, presented the twenty-five Seniors with their diplomas.

The commencement program marked the close of high school this year.
The last of the school activities will be the Alumni banquet which will be held at the Hotel Cumberland tonight.

Pupils of the grades assembled at the school buildings this morning.
Final report cards were issued and they were dismissed for the scholastic year.

The graduating class follows:
Harold E. Adams, Henry Billingsley, Russell Brown, Jack Chesney, Abe H.
Euster, Homer L. Griffith, Hazel Gertrude Hampton, Glenn Herd, Roy L.
Lambert, Beulah Lewis, Charles K.
Marion, Harry McElhenny, Rena Evelyn Moore, Stirl B. Mayes, Charles M. Neighbors, Ola Virginia Nelson, Thelma Jessie Pearson, Gwendolyn Roberts, Wendell Sanders, Earl A.
Stone, Ben VanBeber, Clarence Williams, Arceus Williams, Curtis Willis and Gertrude Willis.

PARIS MARTIN TO BE TRIED MONDAY

Alleged Participant In Mountain Murder Case Is Now Ready For Trial

The Paris Martin murder case is scheduled for trial at Pineville Monday, according to report from there today. Both sides were ready for trial today but, this being a holiday and the memorial exercises having been arranged for the court-house, it was thought best to wait until Monday to begin the trial.

Martin has been held for a long time for alleged complicity in the mountain murder. Trial of the case has been put off a number of times on account of the absence of witnesses. These were present today and everything was in readiness for the hearing.

Asks Salvation Army To Help Find Brother

Search of C. E. Sutherland is being made here by the Salvation Army at the request of his brother, J. J.
Sutherland, of Mobile, Ala. The missing man is described as a "medicine man that sells medicine on the streets."

The writer of the communication to the Salvation Army states that if his brother is sick, broke or in jail he will be glad to help him. So far, the man has not been located here. Any one having information of the man is requested to notify the Salvation Army.

Mrs. P. Chaney Hurt In Leap From Burning Car

Frightened at an outbreak of fire in the automobile in which she was riding, Mrs. Parkey Chaney jumped from the car at Little Log Mountain yesterday afternoon and received painful injuries.

Mr. Chaney was driving the car. A small gasoline explosion resulted from the engine and the fire blazed through the floor. Mrs. Chaney sprang from the car to avoid the fire. She was cut on the head and her ankle was bruised in the fall to the ground. She received the attention of a local physician soon after the accident.

LAWYER DIES AS TRIAL PROGRESSES

Succumbs Few Minutes Before Making Arguments In Mrs.
Lindsey's Case.

By Associated Press.
BARDSTOWN, May 30.—N. W. Halstead, 72, widely known criminal lawyer, died here today a few minutes before he was to make an argument in the trial of Mrs. Beulah Vance Lindsey, accused of the murder of her former husband. The lawyer became ill of indigestion and died within two hours.

Returned To Louisville
Harlan, May 30.—Miss Rose Baer left for her home in Louisville Tuesday evening.

CONTRIBUTION STO CHEST STILL COME

Fund Now $11,500 With Nearly $5,000 More Regarded As Obtainable.

Additional collections of $500 brings the Community Chest fund up to $14, 500. This report was made by W. C.
Stair, general chairman of the campaign, early this afternoon.

Contributions continue to come in.
Some have doubled the amount of their first subscriptions; other have increased them even greater than this. A number of persons who were not seen by the solicitors on the first day of the drive have given liberally when approached.

A list of those persons who have not given but who, in all probability will make contributions when approached, has been compiled together with the amount they will probably give. This estimate aggregates $5,000. The workers are confident they will get enough of these estimated contributions to make the goal which is $17,500.

A number of men are hard to find and may not be seen by a solicitor for several days. These persons are requested to make their subscriptions to Mr. Stair or any other member of the campaign committee, thereby saving time and enabling the Community Chest to be filled sooner.

FIND OWNER OF SPECTACLES CLUE

Young Son of Manufacturer Admits Trip to Spot Where Franks Body Was Found.

CHICAGO, May 30.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., 19-year-old son of a millionaire box manufacturer was taken into custody for questioning early yesterday morning after records of an optical company revealed that spectacles found near the body of 14-year-old Robert Franks, kidnappers victim, had been sold to him.

Young Leopold, a college student, said that he had visited the spot where the glasses were found possibly as many as fifty times with classes in ornithology. "Maybe they are, but I don't think so," he replied when asked if he owned the spectacles according to an announcement by Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney.

Mr. Crowe said Leopold admitted he had been to the spot where the Franks boy's body was found a week ago three or four days before the murder. At his home only the case for the glasses was found. Young Leopold had said according to the state's attorney, that he thought glasses and case were there. The youth said he purchased the glasses when he suffered from headaches, but had discarded them some time ago.

TEACH CITIZENSHIP TO WOMEN VOTERS

League Will Have Three Days School at U. of K. Following Conference.

LEXINGTON, May 30.—A conference of the Kentucky League of Women Voters will be held here June 17, followed by the School of Citizenship, June 18, 19 and 20, directed by Dean W. C. Taylor and conducted under the University of Kentucky and Kentucky League of Women Voters.

This School of Citizenship is open to the public and a number of Kentucky women more interested in than informed on the matters of citizenship and voting are expected to take advantage of the offer to attend the School.

The annual League convention, which was to have been held June 17, will be postponed until fall so that League elections will not interfere with state and national affairs.

ALLIES CONTROL TO STAY IN GERMANY

Note Sent Berlin Today Indicates No Cessation Military Hand at Present.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 30.—The Allies intend to keep a firm hand on the military control of Germany by maintaining a Commission of Control in full operation until disarmament demands in the Treaty of Versailles are fully executed, according to a note from the Council of Ambassadors sent to Berlin today.

Constitutionality of 75 Million Bond Issue Argued Today

Contest Resolves Self Around Number of Points.

KILLED BY AIRPLANE

Lexington Mechanic Run Down
By Wild Plane.
By Associated Press.
LEXINGTON, May 30.—Run down by a pilotless airplane that had broken from its moorings, James Weller, 28, mechanic for a garage here, was instantly killed by a propeller blade in a field near here today. Weller formerly lived in Muncie, Ind.

Hon. J. M. Robsion Was In Middlesboro Today

Congressman J. M. Robsion was in Middlesboro this morning, previous to his visit to Pineville where he was scheduled to deliver a Memorial address this afternoon. While here this morning he was with Judge J. L.
Manning, Senator Bosworth, John Miller and other friends.

Congressman Robsion will begin his campaign for Congress from the Eleventh District soon against Jackson Morris.

PLAYGROUNDS HERE NEARING REALITY

Field Secretary to Follow Senator Klutz Will Outline Local Needs.

Hon. Whitehead Klutz, who has been here the past ten days in the interest of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, expects to leave tomorrow, when he shall probably have arranged for a special field secretary to come to Middles-boro and work out definite plans for the playground work.

Middlesboro people are enthusiastic about the playground project and Mr. Klutz has found encouragement in it from every quarter. The Red Cross executive board, the Woman's Club, the Kiwanis Club and the Baptist Church have all endorsed the movement and put themselves on record as backing it. The Kiwanis Club has gone farther by appointing a committee to take definite action on the matter, assuring them of financial support if necessary.

The field secretary who is expected to come will help the community organize and develop their recreation work on a year-round basis, supported by municipal appropriations administered by a supervisor of recreation employed the entire year. This secretary will make as much of a local recreation survey as is necessary to get results. He will work out an appropriate local program of playground and recreational developments and adapt the best plan to local needs.
He will also help in the choice of the full-time secretary.

The plan, then will be carried out.
This will provide playgrounds in every neighborhood, probably in connection with all of the school buildings in the city. Besides, it will help develop summertime athletics, games, holiday celebrations and community drama and music with the school as the center.

Englishmen May Aban- don World Flight

LONDON, May 30.—Stuart Mac-Laren and his companions may be compelled to abandon their world flight in consequence of the accident to their plane at Akyah, notwithstanding the presence of a spare machine at Tokio and the American offer of assistance.

It is believed here that the British fliers, despite their last efforts, would be unable to re-start before 12 days or a fortnight, by which time the Monsoon probably would make further flight impossible for several weeks. It is further pointed out that each day's delay adds to the peril of crossing the northern pacific, owing to the likelihood of fog and blizzards.

Eversole Indicted For Killing Greeley Scott

Joe Eversole has been indicted by the Bell county grand jury for the killing of Greeley Scott at Pineville, according to the circuit court clerk.
Criminal court has been in session all week at Pineville though little has been done. The grand jury continues its daily investigations.

CASE IS SUBMITTED

Proponents Cite Other Issues Held Legal Which Had More Than One Piece of Legislation.

By Associated Press.
FRANKFORT, May 30.—Arguments in the Court of Appeals today over the constitutionality of the $75-000,000 bond issue resolved around a number of points. The pro-bond arguments is that it has been decided three times that a Kentucky bond issue for more than one purpose constitutes a single piece of legislation providing that the title is comprehensive and that anything having a natural connection therewith may be included in the act.

The contention of the anti-bond side that the issue should have been submitted to the voters is refuted by the allegation that the appellate court previously decided otherwise in the Louisville park bond issue. The objection that the act amends several other statutes is met by the assertion that other acts have been amended and still stand. Other arguments were directed at the wisdom of a state bond law and not at the power of the legislature to enact it. The case was then submitted.

THREE KILLED AS ENGINE OVERTURNS

Strawberry Special of Fourteen Cars Is Derailed Near Harrison Thursday Morning.

HARRIMAN, Tenn., May 30.— When a freight train on the Cincinnati, Southern northbound was wrecked four miles south of Harrison at an early hour yesterday morning, Engineer Charles Dudley, Fireman Holland and Brakeman Potter, all men of families residing in Chattanooga were killed instantly. Fourteen refrigerator cars loaded with strawberries piled up after the engine was derailed and had half buried itself in the earth the length of the engine away from the track.

Wrecking crews were called from Oakdale and Chattanooga and after a short time the bodies of the train-men were extricated and sent to Rockwood to be prepared for shipment to their homes.

The train is said to have been running two hours late, when the Poney trucks of the tender left the rails and rode the ties for more than a mile.

The train of 40 cars of berries represented Wednesday's output of the various fields between Harrison and Chattanooga and were consigned to Northern and eastern markets.

At noon yesterday the track had been cleared sufficiently so that the regular scheduled passenger trains could move, but no freight except perishable goods was being sent over the temporary tracks, it will take several days to clear up the scene of strawberries and splintered cars.

Trainmaster Dearing of Harrison, had been riding this berry special every night for the past three weeks and it was his policy to ride the engine. Wednesday night however he was detained at Oakdale to attend a safety meeting which possibly saved his life.

cator and civic leader, died at a hospital here today after a long illness.

Prank Proves Fatal To Naval Midshipman

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 30.— Thrown overboard from the sea wall at the naval academy by classmates in an annual frolic, Midshipman Leister R. Smith, of Kent, Ohio, was killed Wednesday afternoon. It was believed he was struck on the head by the mast of a small sailboat which overturned just after he was thrown in.

COMMEMORATION OF MEMORIAL DAY

Today is commemorated in most of the states of the United States as a day set aside for honoring our dead. Beginning as a patriotic day on which to pay homage to the soldiers who lost their lives in the Civil War. It has since been set aside as a day sacred to the memory of all our dead, a time for decoration of their graves and for paying honor to them.

Such commemoration is indeed commendable. Man's civilization is traceable by the way in which his dead are treated. A nation that forgets its dead and has for its forefathers no reverence will soon land on the rocks. We are the same as our fathers, with the same trials, aspirations, disappointments and successes. If we accept their experiences and add them to ours we are as much benefited as if we had lived two lives.

The soldiers of the Civil War saved our union and shaped the United States to become the greatest nation in the world. Fitting it is that we should remember each year on this day the men who gave their lives in this conflict of brother against brother, men who did not live to see their country united again in its glory of today. True patriots, they died that their country might live, and far removed be the day on which we fail to pay to them all homage.

In a more recent war a younger generation of soldiers, united north and south, stepped into the breach to save not only their country but the world for the ideals their parents had taught them. Many of these boys gave their lives on the battle fields or in the camps where disease claimed them. Whole-hearted homage is the only way by which we can repay them, too.

Today throughout all the country people are gathering to honor the old and the young dead. Ancient grievances are forgotten in this general commemoration. North and south again are brothers in the new grief, sympathetic one with another in the old sorrow to which the years have brought understanding.

WHICH SYSTEM IS BETTER?

A discussion of the tariff question, free from the bitterness of partisan politics, would be beneficial to very public official and individual voter in this nation. Figures are dry reading and few people, even leaders in public thought, will take the trouble to analyze the wonderful stories that figures tell.

For years we have taken it for granted that the talk about "free trade" Great Britain meant that that nation had no tariff, while the term "protective tariff" in the United States meant that people were forced to pay much higher prices for home-made products which could be purchased cheaper if shipped in here from foreign countries.

The facts are that in "free trade" England, the per capita customs tax is more than four times as high as in our own "tariff ridden" United States. The hideous thing about the English tariff is that it protects, except in a few sporadic cases, not articles manufactured in that country, but customs duties are imposed almost solely upon the necessities of the poor—tea, tobacco, sugar, cocoa, etc., which to the English workmen are as necessary as roast beef.

In other words, there is no tariff to protect the average English workman of industry from ruinous competition of other nations which can produce manufactured articles more cheaply. Instead of putting the tariff on foreign pianos, motor cars and similar articles, to protect the home industries and workmen making these products, the English put the tariff on the necessities of life which are shipped in but which do not compete with locally manufactured articles because such products are not made in England.

The United States simply reverses this process and aims to protect industries which must meet the strongest foreign competition, and the highest tariffs are on articles which are not necessities of life.

It should be appreciated that one day's work and one day's wage will pay the American worker's individual proportion of all the customs duties on everything collected in the United States, such customs duties under the Fordney Tariff Bill being 1.1 cent per day capita. Prior to that, for many years, they averaged less than 1 cent per day per capita, a small price to pay for peaceful and profitable employment.

With these facts before us, why can the tariff not be discussed as a business rather than a political issue?

Political pow-wows are being held to keep the country from going to the bow-wow.

Pictures By Telephone May Bring Same Old Troubles

It is now possible to send photographs over the telephone wire. Highly successful demonstrations were given a few days ago by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company on a wire between Cleveland and New York. A picture of President Coolidge was sent by telephone in less than a half hour. This is less time than it takes to get a telephone message the same distance.

There was very little confusion. Due to a wrong connection the face of a neighbor of Mr. Coolidge was sent the first time. This error was promptly remedied and the President's face then came through all right except for a couple of wrong ears. It was later found these belonged to a Cleveland newspaper publisher who got on the wire by mistake.

The matter was referred to the complaint operator. She promised to take the matter up with the wire chief and see that the president got his own ears.

A photo of Tris Speaker was then put on the wire. One eye failed to come through due to wire trouble outside of Buffalo. Searchers are looking for it. If any rural phone subscriber received an eye in the course of a telephonic conversation he is asked to notify central at once.

Engineers and scientists who observed the tests predict the Picture-Telephone will be in use quite generally in a few years. This will make it possible for you to use the telephone to see how your Uncle Abner in Portland, Oregon, is LOOKING.

The Way to Everlasting Peace

HUNT'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By Harry B. Hunt

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 30.—No more difficult problem will be faced by William M. Butler, campaign manager for President Coolidge, than that of "selling" the Coolidge candidacy to William Edgar Borah of Idaho.

Borah has been the first choice of Butler and the Coolidge clan for the honor of placing "Caution" Cal in nomination at the Cleveland convention.

But Cal in his warner days was never more cautious than Borah has been in considering whether or not to accept said honor.

Borah's personal preference is, in this campaign as in most matters, to undertake, to play a lone hand. He is up for re-election himself this year, and it is a question whether his own position in Idaho will be helped or hurt by too close an affiliation with the Coolidge campaign.

Borah's strength in his home state has been his conservatism. The chief claim for Coolidge support, however, is on the ground of the president's caution and conservatism. While the two could be mixed to Coolidge's advantage, nationally, the combination might cause Cole and convulsions if applied locally in Idaho.

It is the advantage that would result from an open and sweeping endorsement of Coolidge by Borah that has been sought in the effort to persuade Borah to make the nominating address.

This would serve two purposes. It would define favorably to Coolidge a large progressive following which would accept Borah's estimate of the man and his abilities as their own estimate.

And, having committed himself to the Coolidge candidacy by placing him in nomination, Borah would be compelled to ride the range peacefully with the organization outfit during the entire campaign.

A less important factor, but one that also has had its part in the negotiations, is that Borah's speech would be one that would get across not merely to the convention but to the country.

Borah's speeches are "good copy." Next to the original "T. R." no man recently in public life has had the knack of expressing himself so as to catch the newspaper headlines as has Borah. His speeches are picturesque and full of "punch."

His voice, too, is powerful and with a carrying quality that can reach the most remote corner even of Cleveland's is TEMPORARILY OUT OF ORDER.

WE thought it a queer name for a building material business. "Well, perhaps 'public service corporation' would be a better name," he said.

There is a good deal of truth in that, we hope. We do try to give you the sort of service you want. We try to stock the sort of material that will give you satisfaction when you use it. We want you to get your money's worth.

If we don't satisfy our customers, we'll go out of business just like the next fellow.

One of the ways in which we believe we can serve you is to sell Cornell-Wood-Board. It's a quality product, all-wood, triple-sized to resist moisture, mill-primed to take paint, oatmeal-finish for good looks. Its large, clean panels are fine for walls and ceilings; and for handy repairs. It's like perfect knotless lumber.

You'd be interested to read the book-let we have about its many uses. Phone us and we'll gladly send it.

TO AN IRISH BLACKBIRD

By James MacAlpine
Wet your feet, wet your feet,
This is what he seems to say, Calling from the heavy thicket At the breaking of the day.

Wet your feet, wet your feet,
Silver toned be sounds the call
From his bramble in the thicket
When the dew is on the fall.

Many times in lands far distant,
In my dreams I hear him play On his lute within the thicket, Ere the showers have passed away.

Years have passed since last I heard him, Since I said a sad adieu,
To the early fresh morning With the rainbow tinted dew.

And I still can hear him calling And the call comes clear and sweet, And I still can see the mornings With the dew about my feet.

Wet your feet, wet your feet,
Silver toned be sounds the call
From his bramble in the thicket
When the dew is on the fall.

Choral Society Changes Meeting

There was a well attended rehearsal last night of the Middlesboro Choral Society. It was decided to hold the rehearsals on Monday night instead of Thursday night. This change will be effective Monday night June 3rd, but the rehearsal of next week will be as usual on Thursday night, June 5th. This change of rehearsal night is thought will suit the majority of the old and expected new members better than the old arrangement. It is expected to have some of the other new music for the revival in the near future for the Monday of the week following.

Mrs. W. E. Dupont and little daughter, Jean, returned yesterday morning from Nashville, where they had been spending a month with home-folks.

Chaney's Hunchback Role Is Last Word In Stage Art

Lon Chaney, admittedly the finest interpreter of unusual character roles on either stage or screen and whose work as the fake cripple in "The Miracle Man" stands out as a bit of remarkable acting, to say nothing of his other wonderful impersonations, has added another striking characterization to his already long list in his appearance as "Quisimodo," the stammering role in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," the massive picture production, based on Hugo's classic, which begins a two-day engagement at the Manning theatre June 2nd.

There is probably no actor behind the footlights, or before the camera, today, who has mastered the art of make-up to the extent Lon Chaney has. His Fagin, in "Oliver Twist," was an example of his proficiency in this line. Besides being a player of intelligence, with a keen sense of the requirements of a role, Mr. Chaney is an acrobat and contortionist, abilities which he is often called upon to use in his characterizations.

Nerve-weary? Drink Tea!

THERE is something wonderfully soothing about a cup of hot tea—or a glass of iced tea. It refreshes you at once. Tea seems to rest your tired nerves immediately. This is because tea is rich in vitamins—Nature's re-vitalizers. Tea is a quick-acting stimulant.

Drink tea when you feel work-weary. Drink it when you're hot. Drink it when you're thirsty. It quenches thirst instantly. And you feel better immediately. It cools you off. You feel rested.

Good to the last Drop

To make certain of good tea, always be sure it is Maxwell House. This is the brand which housewives recognize as the best "tea insurance." No matter what your tea taste, Maxwell House will please you.

Drink tea frequently, and neither work nor hot weather will weary you. You'll feel fine all the time. Tea is a most delicious refreshment.

For sale at all the best grocery stores, in two-ounce, quarter-pound, half-pound and pound tins. Also in individual tea balls—250 and 500 tea-tasters.
